

“Power Ho’oponopono” contains a unique combination of the Hawaiian practice of Ho’oponopono and the power of symbols, focusing on Healing and Forgiveness. First published in German, the smallbook with great depth is now translated into English!

As each year comes to a close, many people reflect: What happened in my life this past year? What was enjoyable and what was disappointing? Which people and which situations touched me? What and who annoyed me? What kind of changes happened in my life? Looking at these experiences and feelings, one may ask what their real lessons were.

A traditional shamanistic healing method from Hawaii called Ho’oponopono goes right to the point of this inquiry. It postulates that one is fully responsible for everything that happens to oneself.

This technique has reached a large amount of people over the years and it has become highly popular. A major reason for this popularity is that Ho’oponopono is easy to apply. It teaches how to fully live here and now.

Two Authentic Life Coaches ®, Christine and Robert Salopek, have worked for years with the core statements of Ho’oponopono. Both coaches experienced great success through these statements. The basic statements are: “I am sorry.” “I forgive myself.” “I thank you.” “I love you.”

Over time, the two teachers reformulated these statements. They developed the new practice of „Power-Ho’oponopono“, which adds the power of symbols to the traditional statements. By doing this, they updated the traditional Hawaiian healing technique into a new form, one which is fully adapted to the present times.

Power-Ho’oponopono is completely new and yet it stays true to the essence of the original principles. The method remains as free and flexible as it has been for Hawaiian families for centuries. The coaches have opened a door to apply the four steps in such a way that the user can create a deliberate change in his or her life, and therefore become better able to reach wealth, health, peace and happiness.

What’s left to do is to have trust and confidence in the Divine so that healing can happen,

Ho’oponopono is a registered healing technique in the USA.
